Chapter 466: The Nine Divine Dragons Take Command

With the Divine Triad—Sung Jin-Woo, Ashborn, and Sung Su-Ho—fully ascended to their respective supreme realms, the mantle of leadership over the vast divine troops in the Heavenly Realm was entrusted to the Nine Divine Dragons. These mighty beings, descendants of Sung Jin-Woo and Sung Su-Ho, assumed responsibility for maintaining order, protecting the balance, and ensuring prosperity throughout the multiverse.

Command Over the Divine Troops

The Nine Divine Dragons now led and coordinated the operations of several formidable forces:

Apostles of God: Beings of primordial light, wielding unparalleled celestial power.

Dark Apostles: Masters of darkness and chaos, relentless protectors of the shadows.

Heavenly Soldiers: Guardians of the multiverse, born from the World Tree's sacred fruits.

Dark Heavenly Soldiers: Mysterious beings tasked with defending the realms born from divine darkness.

This responsibility extended to their alliance with key celestial entities:

Archangels: Led by Gabriel, Azrael, and Michael, wielders of divine judgment and protection.

Dark Archangels: Guardians of The Absolute One’s domain, fierce protectors of the Godverse.

Angels and Dark Angels: Multi-purpose beings deployed to handle various matters across the cosmos.

Forging New Troops

Despite their control over the existing divine forces, the Nine Divine Dragons continued to focus on creating their own specialized legions:

Sung Ye-Jun: Commanded the Blazing Inferno Legion, expanding it with elite dragon warriors.

Sung Ye-Rin: Strengthened the Lunar Guardians, integrating moon-forged draconic beings.

Sung Ha-Young: Developed storm-faring dragons capable of traversing cosmic phenomena.

Sung Jun-Ho: Innovated radiant dragons infused with celestial aetheric energy.

Sung Hyun-Joo: Deployed stealth-capable spectral dragons attuned to hidden dimensions.

Sung Ri-Hye: Reinforced dragons imbued with lunar and restorative powers.

Sung Kyun-Rae: Bred volcanic dragons resistant to even the most destructive forces.

Sung Ji-Ae: Enhanced the arcane capabilities of twilight dragons.

Sung Da-Hyun: Trained tempestuous dragons adept at weather manipulation and cosmic travel.

A United Front

Under their leadership, the divine troops and dragon legions operated with unmatched synergy. Each Divine Dragon cultivated strategic alliances with celestial beings to maintain peace and balance throughout the realms.

The ascension of the Divine Triad marked a new era, but it was the unwavering resolve of the Nine Divine Dragons that would ensure the multiverse thrived amidst cosmic challenges. Their continuous creation of draconic forces and alliances signified an enduring commitment to strength and harmony.
